

Il Ngwesi

THE LUXURY COMMUNITY SAFARI LODGE IN ONE OF THE MOST EXCLUSIVE AREAS OF KENYA

Il Ngwesi is a Maasai community in Laikipia, Kenya. The community set aside 80% of its land as a conservancy and built the first community run lodge in Kenya.

The area is now a wildlife paradise including elephants and rare African wild dogs and of species only found in the north like Grevy's Zebra and Reticulated Giraffe. Also more than 400 species of birds can be found here.

The lodge offers a wonderful opportunity to engage with the Maasai community. In six secluded bandas beautiful made using natural materials you will have a uninterrupted panorama view provided by the open sided design. Two rooms have a star bed.

ACTIVITIES

A highlight of your stay at Il Ngwesi is the bush walk. Walking with the Maasai guides, the stories on the tracks and trails unfold around you as you learn to spot the different calls and habitats of the birds and animals. As you walk, you will hear the ancient tales as told by the Maasai people to explain the world around you. A safari game drive in the company of extremely knowledgeable Maasai guides away from the tourist crowds and in some of Kenya's most spectacular Scenery is a great experience. Visit the nearby village to learn about the Maasai culture. See also how the lodge is helping the community to develop by visiting local project, schools, clinics, gardens and beadwork groups. Join a bead workshop.
